I have a Little Acorn

(Melody: Ms. Suzy Had a Tugboat)

I have a little acorn, it fell from a tree.
It bonked me on the head, and then it bonked
me on the knee.
I took my little acorn, I took it home with me.
I put it in my pocket, a friend for company.
But then it slipped right out—oh!
It tumbled to the ground. It landed in the dirt—oh! And roots grew all around.
It sprouted up so quickly, it grew and it grew.
My tiny little acorn became a tree - brand new!
Now birds all sit upon it. Its branches shade the sun. I'm glad I had an acorn.
My tree friend's just begun!
